

naviHealth CEO Clay Richards makes the argument for bundled payments in The Hill. As one of the first conveners of BPCI, naviHealth worked with the Department of Health and Human Services to help hospitals adopt bundled payment models, address challenges and opportunities and streamline care transitions. Today, we annually oversee more than 40,000 patient episodes in more than 50 hospitals across eight states around the country. As the debate over healthcare reform continues in Washington, Richards discusses the many ways bundled payments have proven effective – both clinically and financially.
